

TACAMO Hall of Fame – 2021

Loren Linde – TACAMO Sailor

Service

- Over 10 years of TACAMO Service
- VQ-3 (75-77)
- VQ-3 (83-86)
- VQ-3 (88-92)

Key Jobs

- “Old School” Radiomen
- Airborne Communicator
- Airborne Communications Supervisor
- EC-13Q NATOPS Evaluator
- E-6A NATOPS Evaluator
- Communications Security Material Custodian
- Tactics Department Leading Chief Petty Officer
- Dedicated nearly half of his Naval career to the TACAMO community

Peer Recognition

- TACAMO Chiefs Community
- TACAMO HOF Members
- TCVA Board of Directors

Leadership/Contributions

- Recognized as the “Go-To” person for TACAMO Airborne Communications; key to the successful transition/training of Airborne Communicators from the EC-130Q to the new E-6A platform
- As NATOPS Evaluator and Tactics Department LCPO, provided key leadership and training to implement standardized processes unique to both the EC-130Q and E-6A mission systems
- Provided valuable input used in finalization of the first E-6A NATOPS manuals
- Highly respected for his demeanor and calm personality; admired for his fairness and ability to inspire Sailors to seek improvements both professionally and personally
- Unwavering strength and character, original member of TACAMO PAC Crew 4

Community Service

- 1989 NAS Barbers Point Volunteer of the Year
- Volunteered countless hours to the YMCA providing computer technical support and computer upgrades (85-92)
- Youth sports coach