

TACAMO Hall of Fame - 2019

Jay McCormick- NAVAIR-Posthumous

Service

- Naval Electronics Command (NAVELEX) VLF and TACAMO office -68-78
- Naval Air Systems Command (NAVAIR) PMA-271 TACAMO- 78 to 98

Contributions - 30 Years - TACAMO III to HPTS- Herc and Merc

- Key leader in engineering, evaluating and improving TACAMO
- Lead engineer in Navy Electronics Command and later Naval Air Systems Command
- Deputy Program Manager for development of 3rd/4th generation TACAMO MAS
- Daily interaction and direction with contractors, engineers, testers, logisticians,
- Strategic direction with Program Manager in negotiations with senior Navy, DoD, Congressional staffs

Leadership

- Shared mentorship, sound technical/ops understanding/business acumen
- Continually pushed for VLF/other mission systems improvements like HPTS
- Mentor to young leaders working at NAVAIR and in Fleet/Pentagon staffs
- Sharp management of requirements and how contractors met them

Community Service

- Supervisor for McHenry Township (PA)
- Oversaw implementation of Emergency Response 911 rescue system (Cammal, PA)
- Implemented the World Renewed – Rails to Trails System in Pine Creek Valley, PA
- Volunteer leader Cammal Community Church- initiated and led conversion of church buildings into a community center, arts building and library

Peer recognition-

- Engineers and senior managers in NAVAIR/Naval Info Warfare Center
- Contractor and industry leaders, Fleet leaders, PA community leaders, TCVA

TCVA

7/24/22

TACAMO Community
Veterans Association

